Communicating with Families / Parental Involvement

- Prior to Start of year:
 - RE calendar and Class calendar of lessons ; Parent handbook
 - Safe-environment training of catechists
 - Mail postcards to students or prepare them to hand out on first day of class
 - Begin planning for a combined , mid-year class activity with the class before or after your grade-level.
- Start of year
 - Kick off new year of learning with family event
 - Focus: build relationships, build routine
 - Greetings and encouragements: Praise, praise, and more praise
 - Take classroom group picture

Communicating with Families / Parental Involvement

- Mid-year
 - Vary learning environment: Fall / spring outside, church tour
 - Unit reviews: NO paper/pencil tests! Play games instead.
 - Invite guest speakers into the classroom
 - Take pictures!
- End of year
 - Celebration of Families: potluck breakfast
 - Spiritual bouquets for parent
 - Students sing classroom Litany songs
 - Distribute new registration packets
 - Take more pictures!

Utilizing Textbooks

The Textbook - Your friend!

- Supports teaching; does not suppress it
- Serves as foundation for supplementary creative methods
- Crucial tool for the untrained catechist

Advantages of using one textbook program:

- Provides consistency of message
- consistency of vocabulary
- consistency of timeline for learning within liturgical year
- can “spiral”
- provides consistency of parental support
- provides consistency of supplementary materials

Utilizing Other Resources

Resources for you are also resources for our families

Evangelii Gaudium

(The Joy of the Gospel)

Apostolic Exhortation 2013, Pope Francis

- ❖ “To evangelize is to make the kingdom of God present in our world.”
- ❖ “Evangelization is first and foremost about preaching the Gospel to those who do not know Jesus. Instead of seeming to impose new obligations, they should appear as people who wish to share their joy, who point to a horizon of beauty and who invite others to a delicious banquet.”
- ❖ “It is impossible to persevere in a fervent evangelization unless we are convinced from personal experience that it is not the same thing to have known Jesus as not to have known him...”
- ❖ “The primary reason for evangelizing is the love of Jesus which we have received, the experience of salvation which urges us to ever greater love of him.
 - ❖ What kind of love would not feel the need to speak of the beloved,
 - ❖ to point him out, to make him known?”
- ❖ “I invite all Christians, everywhere, at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ... No one should think that this invitation is not meant for him or her...”

A Catechist's Prayer

Catechetical Sunday 2017

Father of all families, you have called me to serve the family in truth and love as a catechist.

May I be faithful to this call, rooted in your Word,
and open to the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

May I use these gifts, especially the gifts of faith, hope, and love, to serve the family as a witness to you, who are love and life and the source and destiny
of all families.

Let your Spirit enlighten my mind and strengthen my heart so that I can be a path of Christ's love to families,
especially those in need,
the homebound and aged,
the disabled and disheartened.
Through the intercession of Mary and Joseph,
I pray for the Church,
the Bride of Christ, whose mission to build a civilization of love passes through the family.
Amen.
